

Memorandum of Understanding

For Educational Cooperation Between

Universitas Muhammadiyah Surabaya

And

University of Kang Ning

Representatives of Universitas Muhammadiyah Surabaya (Indonesia) and University of Kang Ning (Taiwan) have discussed the desirability and feasibility of an interactive relationship designed to strengthen the bonds between the two institutions. This Memorandum of Understanding is intended to help facilitate an international exchange of educational and developmental programs. Conceived as a continuing relationship, the agreement is expected to be formally reviewed periodically to assure that both parties are sufficiently benefiting and that desirable modifications are introduced.

Objectives:

1. To cooperate in the further development of the institutions, especially with regard to academic programs.
2. To broaden the experience of faculty and students of the institutions, providing them with opportunities for increased cultural understanding.
3. To encourage the expansion of international understanding and cultural ties between citizens of both countries.

Operations:

1. The institutions agree to discuss the exchange of information, faculty and students.
2. The institutions will formulate specific action agreements to assist in creating and operating cultural activities.
3. The institution will explore ways and means to develop mutually beneficial academic programs.

Renewal, Termination and Amendment:

This Memorandum of Understanding, as well as succeeding plans for operation, shall be effective after approval by the appropriate authorities of both institutions. This Memorandum of Understanding shall be effective for five years after signing. Upon five years review by both parties, the Memorandum of Understanding shall be renewed. Either party may terminate the agreement by serving written notice six months prior to the anticipated termination date.
